What do the finalists receive?

Important: All artworks receive a digital presentation during the show, not only those of the finalists.

The original artworks of the 10 finalists will be exhibited during ARTBOX.PROJECT Zurich 8.0 from September 2–6, 2026. Only the finalist artwork of each artist will be shown as an original in Zurich. All remaining registered artworks will be digitally presented on the 86" screens together with the other participants.

Additional services for finalists:

The transport costs of the finalist artworks to the exhibition and back to the artist (excluding packaging costs), as well as the on-site services, are covered by ARTBOX.PROJECTS. In summary, the on-site services include the following:

An exhibition space for the finalist artwork, including the installation and de-installation of the artwork

Supervision by sales staff during the entire exhibition

Labeling of the exhibition space in accordance with ARTBOX.PROJECTS standards

Creation of a personalized QR code that links directly to the artist's website

Each finalist receives one exclusive week at the Open Atelier in Palma de Mallorca. (See description here: <https://www.casadelartepalma.com/openatelier>) The date will be individually arranged with each artist.

The finalist artwork must be packed in such a way that it can withstand transport without damage. The packaging must be reusable for the return transport. If a wooden crate is used, it may weigh a maximum of 10 kg and must comply with European wood protection standards. It must be easy to open from the front and closed with screws (nails are not permitted). Cardboard packaging must also be easy to open and reusable and must not be completely sealed with adhesive tape. It is strongly recommended to secure the inner packaging (e.g. bubble wrap) with a maximum of 1-2 small adhesive strips. Transport damage is the responsibility of the artist. If transport insurance is desired, it must be taken out by the artist.

What do the semifinalists receive?

The artworks of the 20 semifinalists will not be exhibited as originals. They will be digitally displayed on the two 86" screens.

The artworks of the 10 semifinalists will not be exhibited as originals. Instead, they will be digitally displayed on the two 86" HD screens, also including the artist's name, artwork title, and a personal QR code that links to their website. Each of the 10 semifinalists also receives one week at the Open Atelier at Casa del Arte in Palma de Mallorca. (See description here: <https://www.casadelartepalma.com/openatelier>) The date will be individually arranged with each artist.
